

EngenderHealth Posters and Presentations at #ICFP2018

13 NOVEMBER

8:00 - 11:00 • POSTERS • AUDITORIUM TERRACE

High-impact service delivery points: Increasing access to contraception through integrated services

Joyce Ishengoma

Strengthening Postabortion Care Services through Expanding Method Choice to Include Long-Acting Reversible Contraceptives for Women in Tanzania

Melkior Anselim

Increasing access to family planning and LARC/PMs through a tailored service integration approach: EngenderHealth-Ethiopia experience

Assefa Alem

Service provider perspectives on the quality of postabortion care family planning services in Dakar, Senegal

Thierno Dieng

11:30 - 14:30 • POSTERS • AUDITORIUM TERRACE

Postpartum Family Planning in Bangladesh: Achievement of Mayer Hashi II

Sambandan Kaushik

Long-acting and permanent methods of family planning service uptake in hospitals using a breakthrough change initiative: experiences from Ethiopia

Ambaw Damtew

Introduction of Postpartum Intrauterine Contraceptive Device for Expanding Contraceptive Options for Postpartum Women in Ethiopia

Assefa Alem

Lessons learned from introduction of postpartum intrauterine contraceptive device services in highly skilled delivery facilities in Ethiopia

Bereket Matthews

Implications of Quality and Cost Interventions to Increase Family Planning Use during the Extended Perinatal Period in Kinshasa, DRC

Leah Jarvis

Initiating Postpartum Family Planning into Pediatric Care Services: A Case of Jinja Regional Referral Hospital

Lucy Asaba

14:35 - 15:55 • SESSIONS

Workplace family planning interventions: expanding access to services for garment workers in Bangladesh

Sambandan Kaushik, AD4

Involving men in family planning via vasectomy and the standard days method / Impliquer les hommes dans la planification familiale via la vasectomie et la méthode des jours fixes

Traci Baird, Session Chair, AD9

15:00 - 18:00 • POSTERS • AUDITORIUM TERRACE

Reproductive Health Among The Urban Poor: The Glory Reborn Model

Dr. Jose Rodriguez

Mobilizing Family Planning Funds from PhilHealth: Meeting Clients' Needs in a Sustainable Way

Shumon Sengupta

16:20 - 17:40 • SESSIONS

Integrating postabortion care and family planning and expanding uterine evacuation and contraceptive method choice in Zanzibar, Tanzania: a pre-post evaluation.

Justin Kahwa, AD11, French Translation

14 NOVEMBER

8:00 - 11:00 • POSTERS • AUDITORIUM TERRACE

Program for Young Parents (PYP): A Novel Hospital-Based Approach Aimed at Improving Maternal Health Outcomes and Family Planning Use among Young Mothers in Central Philippines

Shumon Sengupta

Access to and use of Family Planning among young mothers in Tanzania

Justin Kahwa

10:25 - 11:45 • SESSIONS

Integration of family planning into fistula care at prevention and treatment sites in Uganda

Lucy Asaba, AD5

Complications of IUCD Insertions as a Reflection of Quality of Services: A Secondary Data Analysis

Shobhana Singh, Club 2

11:30 - 14:30 • POSTERS • AUDITORIUM TERRACE

Involving Community Leaders in Changing Social Norms

Alioune Diagne

Engaging men to improve the utilization of long-acting and permanent methods of family planning: Experience from Oromiya Region, Ethiopia

Bereket Mathewos

Trained religious leaders in promoting family planning to improve maternal health: Experiences from the Central and Midwestern regions of Uganda

Paul Kaduyu

Mobilizing Satisfied Users as Providers of FP Information to Support Healthy Behaviors

Dr. Jose Rodriguez

14:35 - 15:55 • SESSIONS

An Innovative and Promising Approach to Increase Family Planning Uptake in Mauritania: The Family Planning Special Days Strategy

Macoumba Thiam, Club 2

15:00 - 18:00 • POSTERS • AUDITORIUM TERRACE

Improving Access to Safe Abortion Care Services: Experience from EngenderHealth's Access to Better Reproductive Health Initiative (ABRI) Project in Ethiopia

Tesfaye Hailegebriel

Improving IUD Client Follow-Up: Experiences from Two States in India

Nikita Srivastav

Establishment of Field Training Areas for More Effective Clinical Training of Family Planning Providers

Ana Marie Villasin

Improving the contraceptive method mix through rights-based multidimensional approaches in Fistula Care Plus-supported sites in Uganda

Lucy Asaba

16:20 - 17:40 • SESSIONS

Using Geographic Information System (GIS) Mapping to Prioritize Areas with High Density of Poor Households with Family Planning Needs for EngenderHealth's VisayasHealth Project Unmet Need Reduction Strategy

Ana Marie Villasin, AD9

Safety of tubal occlusion by minilaparotomy provided by trained clinical officers versus assistant medical officers: a noninferiority randomized controlled trial in Tanzania

Japheth Ominde Achola, AD5

Women's experiences and perspectives on postabortion care and postabortion family planning at public facilities in Dakar, Senegal

Mohamed Diadhiou, AD12 Flash, French Translation

15 NOVEMBER

8:00 - 11:00 • POSTERS • AUDITORIUM TERRACE

Strengthening Data for Decision Making to Promote Improvement of Family Planning Services at Supported Sites: Experience from Fistula Care Plus project In Uganda

Paul Kaduyu

Key Commitments to Family Planning by Religious leaders in Côte d'Ivoire

Nene Fofana Cisse

Change maker in Reproductive health service delivery; community engagement in the Site Walk-through

Delphine Mselle

11:55 - 13:15 • SESSIONS

The impact of the targeted district approach in reducing unmet need for family planning: the case of the RESPOND Tanzania Project

Joyce Ishengoma, Club 3, French Translation

